About the Requiem and Composer

Little Lamb Requiem, a moving three act musical production with singing, narration, dance and mime is entertainment at its best. It revisits the 1955 kidnapping and brutal murder of a fourteen-year-old African American boy in Money, Mississippi – Emmett Louis Till.

Composer, H. Michael Dryver, uses his God given musical genius in creating each movement of this choral and orchestral masterpiece. One will appreciate the solemnity of the Mass movements in Latin and enjoy the fascinating and complex rhythms of contemporary gospel music. With the inclusion of arrangements of Negro Spirituals, a traditional gospel piece, and a jazz movement, this work illumines a portion of the African American musical legacy to the world.
